

Inspiring local giving that changes lives

The Community Foundation serving Tyne & Wear and Northumberland builds stronger communities and enriches the lives of local people by awarding grants of £7m a year and influencing the critical issues in the region.

Over the past 20 years, the vision, commitment and generosity of families and companies who ask the Community Foundation to manage their charitable giving have enabled it to become one of the leading philanthropic bodies in the North East, with a national reputation.

Chief Executive

c.£75k

Newcastle upon Tyne

This is an outstanding opportunity to lead the UK's most innovative and successful community foundation and to ensure that it stays at the forefront of community philanthropy. As the new Chief Executive, you will involve a new generation of donors and help them deliver their philanthropic goals in ways that meet the needs of communities in the North East. You will have an understanding of community philanthropy and a passion for social justice.

A creative and visionary leader, you will be able to gain the confidence of people at all levels and achieve the long term potential of the Community Foundation. You will bring experience of managing a complex organisation and are likely to have income generation or marketing experience at a senior level.
